

_____’s Potty Chart

Color in a lamp each time. Every lamp counts, even the almost ones, and a lamp is never taken away.

I told a grown-up before it happened

I sat on the potty
even for a minute

I washed my hands
soap and a song

Dry all morning
or all afternoon

When the chart is full

A cheer and a lamp is the reward. Accidents are part of learning: nothing comes off the chart.

See your child learn the potty in a story of their own

Scan to see the potty story: two and a half minutes, their name spoken out loud, ready within 24 hours.
